Dear Winton Families,

Year 2 and Year 6 have been very busy this week working together to create a wreath to be laid at the memorial parade at Spa Green, Islington on Sunday. David Dade (Islington Poppy Appeal Organiser) came and collected the wreath this afternoon.

It would be lovely to have Winton pupils attend the memorial parade, it is suggested you arrive at 11:30am to see the parade march in and form up at 12pm. Spa Green is opposite Sadler's Wells Theatre.

This week's Key Stage 1 and 2 stars are:

Children in Need

On Thursday 14th November we will be celebrating Children In Need.

Children In Need's vision is that every child in the UK has a childhood which is safe, happy, secure and allows them the chance to reach their potential.

We will be supporting by:

-selling wristbands and ears in the playground before and after school from Monday

On Thursday all pupils are asked to wear their own clothes to school. This year's theme is 'Get together, get active' so try and wear as many spots, active wear as you can. Or just wear what you would like. £1 donation to Children In Need.

Please remember to check the lost property box there are lots of unnamed items in the box.

Don't forget to label all your child's clothes as it helps us to return them quickly.
