Dear Winton Families,
Check out this week's stars: World Book Week Stars.

Our final week of remote learning has been incredible!

Who remembers when the staff performed 'The Day the Crayons Quit' last year on world book day?
There is a sequel...

'The Day the Crayons Came Home' by Drew Daywalt and Oliver Jeffers, performed for you by some familiar faces

A few photos:

We will be updating our 'World Book Week' page next week to share more photos from our spectacular week.

wish list

Can you help?

We have created a wish list of new books for the school. If you would like to buy a book for the school please check out our Amazon Wish List.

All books donated to the school will include a dedication inside the front cover.

We are still collecting for our play times:

We need your help; we will be collecting the following items for the children to play with:

- Brief cases
- Buggies, push chairs
- Cuddly Toys
- Fabrics - all shapes and sizes
- Hoses
- Keyboards
- Metal pots, pans, trays, wooden spoons

- Old clothes, jackets, overalls, hats, bags
- Phones
- Sofa and chair cushions
- Sheets
- Dressing up clothes
- Lego
- Playmobil
- Toy cars
- Small toy figures
- Suitcases - all sizes

If you have any items to donate, please bring them on Monday 8th March.

We can't wait to see you on Monday, here is a copy of the letter I sent earlier in the week: Welcome Back Letter to Winton Families.

Thank you for your continued support and we look forward to seeing you on Monday.

Best wishes,
